

Marissa Pace

Personal Lines Placement Specialist
Joined SAN Group, Inc. in 2013

As a Personal Lines Placement Specialist, Marissa receives new business from member agencies, markets it with over 20 carriers, finds the best coverage, quotes the pricing to independent agents, and binds coverage on behalf of those agents.

Marissa works with carriers and member agents to offer the most competitive pricing for varied personal risks in standard markets.

Prior to joining SAN Group, Marissa managed the horse barn at Winthrop Farm in Rowley, MA and taught riding lessons for ten years.

She earned her Bachelor's degree in English in 2015 at University of New Hampshire, and earned her Associates' degree in Equine Science at UNH in 2013. Marissa is working towards her P& C Lines license through NH Association of Insurance Agents in 2018.

Marissa is married and lives with her husband in Brentwood, New Hampshire.
